Join us for an inspiring, enriching week that allows you to work with master teachers as you prepare for the 2024-2025 school year.

Courses include a variety of grade-level content, designed to prepare you with pedagogically appropriate main lesson materials, academics, art, stories, science, music, and movement, for your grade level. Lectures and experiences integrate child development and principal themes of the upcoming curricular school year.

Courses will be taught by master teachers including Rev Bowen, Patti Connolly, Marianne Gray, Janet Langley, Ari Magruder, Anna Rainville, and Isabelle Tabacot.
